Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

First Generation

1. George GRANSBURY, Sr. was born about 1710/1712 of Staplehurst, Kent, England and was buried on 27 Oct 1775 in Staplehurst, Kent, England.¹

General Notes: BIRTH: I have found no record of his birth. He is first listed in Staplehurst Parish as a father of George, Jr. I have calculated his birth from the age of Mildred at her death which is given as 72, making her born in 1712.

DEATH: Buried October 27, 1775 in Staplehurst, Kent, England George Gransbury. No age was given. [FHL film 1737092 and 1866585]

DEATH/BIRTH: FHL film 1866585 [Staplehurst, Kent, England Parish Register, Item 1] and 1737092, [Bishops Transcripts, Staplehurst, Kent, England, Item 1, 1603-1812] shows George and Mildred died in Staplehurst. Mildred's age at death was given, as 72, which would make her born [cal. 1712], so I have adjusted the birth date for George as [cal 1710], as his age wasn't given in the death register for his death.

I also found the christenings and burials of the children of his son, George, Jr. (married Mary Taylor) along with some marriages in the parish register #1866585. Items 1-3. Item 1 was Christenings and Burials Item 2 was marriage records Item 3 was Marriage Banns.

NOTE: I find a Mary Gronsbury (signs Gransbery) married Samuel Watson, of Wateringbury 31 Oct 1760 West Farleigh, Kent, England Marriages Film 0093430, Staplehurst, Kent, England Parish register. Film in Burley FHC read by Eunice Harmon Jul 1996. Could she have been a daughter of George and Mildred?

George married Mildred about 1748 of Staplehurst, Kent, England. Mildred was born cal 1712 of Staplehurst, Kent, England² and was buried on 11 May 1784 in Staplehurst, Kent, England²

General Notes: Birth calculated from age at death.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 2 M i. George GRANSBURY, Jr. was christened on 17 Sep 1749 in Staplehurst, Kent, England² and was buried on 15 Feb 1827 in Staplehurst, Kent, England²

George married Mary TAYLOR (b. Cal 1747, buried 12 Apr 1812) on 26 Mar 1771 in Staplehurst, Kent, England.^{2, 3}

Second Generation

2. George GRANSBURY, Jr. (*George Sr.*¹) was christened on 17 Sep 1749 in Staplehurst, Kent, England² and was buried on 15 Feb 1827 in Staplehurst, Kent, England²

General Notes: BANNS: Page 26 Number 129 Banns were between George Gransbury of this Parish and Mary Taylor of this Parish (Staplehurst, Kent, England) on Sunday the 3rd of March 1771, 10th March 1771, 17th March 1771 By I Todd Vicar of Hollingbourn. The same Vicar is listed on all of the Staplehurst Banns as Curate and Vicar. FHL Film 1866585, Item 3. [This would possibly indicate that Mary Taylor was from the village of Hollingbourn, parish of Staplehurst as Banns were posted in both the brides and grooms church.]

MARRIAGE: 26 March 1771, George Gransbury of this Parish and Mary Taylor of this Parish were married in this Church by Banns this twenty sixth day of March in the year One Thousand seven hundred seventy one by me, I Todd

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

[Curate]. This marriage was solemnized between Us: George Gransbury (signature), Mary Taylor her X mark in the presence of Walter Hodges and Elizabeth Gese.

I also found their marriage in the book 'Kent Parish Registers, Marriages p. 125' 942.23 K29k v.2 Witnesses Walter HODGES & Elizabeth GESS. Five days later in Cranbrook, George GRANSBURY was a witness (with Abraham JENNER) at the marriage of Thomas TAYLOR and Sarah NUBALL.

Another copy of their marriage was in Bishops Transcripts Film # 1737092, Item 1: Married. 1771, March 26, George Gransbury & Mary Taylor both of this parish by Banns.

NOTES: I found their children's christening and some burial dates in Film 1866585, Item 1. Found some marriages in Item 2. Found some marriage banns that I hadn't found in the marriage entries in Item 3. This was for their son, Thomas, who had married an Elizabeth. It said Elizabeth Sisley of the parish of Fritterden. Their banns were published 21 April in Fritterden, and on 28 April and 5 May in Staplehurst.

George married Mary TAYLOR on 26 Mar 1771 in Staplehurst, Kent, England^{2,3} Mary was born cal 1747 of Staplehurst, Kent, England¹ and was buried on 12 Apr 1812 in Staplehurst, Kent, England.

General Notes: Banns were posted in village of Hollingworth as well as Staplehurst. Does this give a suggestion as to where she may have been born?

Death record gave her age as 65 so her birth year has been calculated from age at death.

General Notes: BURIAL: In the Staplehurst Parish Chest Records on 18 Oct 1806 7 shillings 7 1/2 pence was paid for the burial of Mrs. Gransbry. Couldn't be sure if it was Mr. or Mrs., but the time frame about fits here for the death date I have for Mary.

Children from this marriage were:

- 9 M i. George GRANSBURY, IV was christened on 29 Jul 1792 in Staplehurst, Kent, England.

General Notes: CHRISTENING: FHC #186585, Item 1, Staplehurst Parish Register. George son of George & Mary Gransbury.

General Notes: NOTES: FHL film #1866585, Item 1. Found some marriages in Item 2; Found some marriage banns that I hadn't found in the marriage entries in Item 3. This was for Thomas, who had married an Elizabeth. It said Elizabeth Sisley of parish Fritterden. Their banns were published 21 April in Fritterden, 28 April and 5 May in Staplehurst.

NOTE: There is a Thomas Gransbury age 65 Ag. Lab. born in Kent County residence Cuckolds Corner in the 1841 census

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

Page 45A. He would have been born in 1776 if the age in the census is correct. I remember hearing that the ages were in 5 and 10 year increaments after about age 15 and that would make the age OK.

Thomas married Elizabeth SISLEY, daughter of George SISLEY and Elizabeth PEARSON, on 5 May 1799 of Fritterden, Kent, England.² Elizabeth SISLEY was christened on 19 Jun 1774 in Staplehurst, Kent, England and was buried on 3 Nov 1824 in Staplehurst, Kent, England.²

Marriage Notes: Married by Banns. Read Parish of Staplehurst record of Banns.

5. Stephen GRANSBURY, Sr. (*George Jr.*², *George Sr.*¹) was christened on 23 Jul 1775 in Staplehurst, Kent, England² and died on 28 Sep 1855 in Stamford, Delaware, New York, at age 80.⁵

General Notes: MARRIAGE: Stephen Gransbury of this Parish and Ann Sisley of this Parish were married in this church by Banns the Seventh day of August in the year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Seven by me H. Grove [Rector] This marriage was solemnized between us: The mark X of Stephen Gransbury The mark X of Ann Sisley. In the presence of George Gransbury The mark of X Elizabeth Bromley. (7 Aug 1797)

Their son, Stephen was christened as Stephen Sisley a baseborn child of Ann Sisley. In the Staplehurst Parish Chest Records at the end of the film are the Bastardy Bonds where Ann Sisley lists Stephen Gransbury as the father of Stephen. Ann listed Stephen as being in another parish when she listed him as the father.

Stephen and Ann Sisley posted Marriage Banns before his birth - but didn't marry for some reason until later - before their second child was born.

DEATH: BLOOMVILLE MIRROR OBITS 1851 - 1858 Extraction, compilation and Electronic File by Alan Malz <mailto:joanduffy@erols.com>

GRANBERY (sp) STEPHEN 09/28/1855 81 STAMFORD (This obituary notice gives Stamford as death place.

[When I checked burials in Stamford cemetery records, there is no record of Stephen. There is an OLD STAMFORD cemetery that Karen and I visited and it has very few headstones, so there is probably no record of those buried there beyond the few stones that are still standing and readable. They have mostly been erected in the later years. Most of the graves were marked with rocks and no identification and the cemetery is overgrown with trees. I feel that this is the cemetery where he would have been buried. There were trees growing up all over the cemetery and it seemed as if no care was being taken with it. His wife, Ann was probably given a paupers burial from the Poor House in Delhi and there aren't any early records available from there.]

NATURALIZATION: FHL film # 1,032,905: 25 Sep 1844, He swore it was his intention to become a Citizen of the United States. Born in England, Came from London in 1839, was about 69 years of age and now resides in Stamford, Delaware, New York. On 30 Sep 1846 he swore allegiance to the United States. Of Stamford. Witnesses, Duncan J. Grant of Stamford and James R. Smith of Delhi in said county. FHL #9032905. His naturalization was apparently done at the same time as Thomas Barnes [son in law], whom he was living with in the 1850 census.

IMMIGRATION: FHL film # 002,283 Stephen came to the United States 8 May 1839 from London on the Bark Oscola. He was listed as age 60, which would have made him born in 1779. (He was christened 23 Jul 1775), Occupation was a farmer. With him were Ann, age 57 (Anne Sisley was christened 20 Jul 1777); John age 14, farmer; Elizabeth, age 6; John, age 28 occupation, Mason; Mary, no age listed; Margaret, age 6; Sarah, age 3; Mary, age 11 months. (This would be their son John [he was actually 38] and his wife Mary and their three daughters. I have followed this family in census, land, probate, death and will records until their death) I believe that Elizabeth is actually Elizabeth Barnes, who would be the daughter of Thomas Barnes and Elizabeth Gransbury, as the age is correct. Their daughter, Elizabeth (Gransbury) Barnes presumably died in England as in New York Thomas Barnes has Rebecca nee Tamsit listed in the census records as his wife. The John, age 14, is still a mystery to me as I find no further record of him.)

I have followed Thomas Barnes and found Elizabeth England as his daughter and one of the executors of his estate. See notes for Thomas.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

In the Staplehurst Parish Chest records, Overseers accounts and Settlement Papers I find Stephen Gransbury getting parish help in 1827, 1829, 1834, and 1835. I wonder if the 1827 and 1829 are for his son, Stephen before he immigrated to the United States and the later years are for Stephen, Sr. This is only assumption as there was no distinction made between the records.

CENSUS: 1840 (Haven't found him. He emigrated in 1839 from London to USA). Was he with Thomas Barnes or his son, Stephen? 1840 census only gave the name of head of household then general ages for others in the home. I don't fit him in either home in 1840.

CENSUS: 1850 Stamford, Delaware, New York pg 179 FHL film 017070 Dwelling 323 family 344

Thomas Barnes age 44, Brick Maker, Real Estate $1200., born England

Rebecca Barnes age 43, born England

Thos. Barnes, Jr, age 18, Laborer, born England, attended school in year

Stephen Gransbury age 75 born England, Laborer

(NOTE: Rebecca's surname turns out to be Tamset/Tamsit, see Thomas will)

This should be the Thomas Barnes who married Elizabeth Gransbury in England, who was a daughter of Stephen, Sr. and Ann Sisley.

CENSUS 1850 Ann Gransbury age 60, born England, is in the Delhi Census in the County Poor House as a Pauper. She is listed in the Index as Ann Grensbury, Delhi, Delaware County. Age is incorrect as it is in many census records and being in an institution that would most certainly be more than possible.

CENSUS 1855 Tompkins, Delaware, New York the same Stephen, age 80 is with his son, Stephen, age 58. His relationship to Stephen, Jr. is listed as father. He was widowed and listed as Stephen Gransbury, Sr. Above Census records were researched and copied by Eunice Harmon in 1996.

Stephen married Anne SISLEY, daughter of George SISLEY and Elizabeth PEARSON, on 7 Aug 1797 in Staplehurst, Kent, England^{2, 3} Anne SISLEY was christened on 20 Jul 1777 in Staplehurst, Kent, England² and died in Apr 1855 in Delhi, Delaware, New York, at age 77⁵

General Notes: MARRIAGE: Ann Sisley and Stephen Gransbury posted banns before the birth of Stephen, but didn't marry until 9 months after their child, Stephen, was born. I read the Parish Chest Records for Staplehurst Parish and almost at the end were the Bastardy Bonds in which Ann Sisley names Stephen Gransbury of (working in another parish) as the father of Stephen. [Bastardy bonds are where the mother had to name the father of her child in order to receive help from the Parish.]

PARENTS: Her parents were George Sisley and Elizabeth Pearson and her 5 brothers and sisters were also found christened in Staplehurst. Her parents were married in Staplehurst, but neither, apparently, were christened there. Her mother, Elizabeth Pearson, was of Chart by Sutton.

DEATH: Ann died in April 1855. In the 1855 census Stephen, Sr. is with his son, Stephen, Jr. and Nancy [Ann] and he [Stephen, Sr.] is listed as widowed. [I have found no record of Ann in any cemetery records but as she was in the Poor House as a pauper in 1850 I imagine she was given a paupers burial in the old cemetery at the Institution. This cemetery has not been kept up as a cemetery by the people who purchased the old institution property and there are no early records of the inmates of the institution.]

CENSUS 1850: Delhi, Delaware, New York Poor House; FHL 017071, page 272, #1632, family 1672. Ann Gransbury [Ann Grensbury 60 born England, Pauper] {This must be our Ann Sisley, wife of Stephen Gransbury, Sr. chr. in 1777 in England and died in April 1855 in Delhi, Delaware, New York} She would have been 73 according to the Parish records stating she was christened in 1777 but ages in census are many times wrong as shown in both Stephen, Sr. and Stephen, Jr. census records and this would be very likely for someone living in an institution.

POOR HOUSE where Ann lived at the end of her life.

1857 Investigation: This is a two-story house of wood, very old and dilapidated, thirty by forty feet. Beside this is an asylum twenty-five by thirty feet. Attached is a farm of one hundred and seventy-five acres yielding a revenue of $250. The basements are used only for the storage of produce. In the house are twelve rooms heated by stoves and furnaces, destitute of ventilation and with extremely low ceilings. The number of inmates was fifty-eight; twenty-five males and thirty-three females; of these two-thirds are native and one-third foreign born; eleven are under sixteen years of age. The sexes are kept separate. They are under one keeper assisted by his wife. FROM TWO TO TWELVE PAUPERS ARE PLACED IN A SINGLE ROOM. The average number of inmates is sixty-five; supported at an average weekly cost of one dollar. The able males are employed on the farm and the women about the house.There are no arrangements for bathing and no water for the house except what is drawn from the river. They have a well, which is now (August 16,) dry. During the year have occurred seven deaths.Eight of the paupers are idiots; five males, three females. There is one deaf and dumb.

THE INSANE POOR OF DELAWARE COUNTY

(Source: The Bloomville Mirror Feb. 21, 1865 page 2 column 3) Transcribed & Submitted by: Linda Robinson fly@nas.net The Delaware Gazette of last week contained a description of the building now occupied by the insane poor of this county, written by Dr. S.D. Willard, and reported to the State Legislature. We have had meetings to amend the Constitution, meetings to build flags, meetings to relieve distress abroad, even Africa, but none to relieve the suffering at our very doors. We hope some philanthropic people at a distance will hear of the misery of these poor people in Delaware County and send a Sanitary Commissioner to the rescue:---

Delaware County---To describe the building of Delaware County in which the insane are kept, will in some degree show the misery to which those unfortunates are necessarily subjected. It is a wood building two stories high, with rooms or cells 4x8 feet, lighted and ventilated only by a diamond hole in the door. Dr. Telford of Delaware, says, "The windows on the outside are of fifteen lights, 7x9 inches glass. A hall runs on each side of the building, and in the middle are located the cells (after the style of a prison,) which are 4x 8 feet square, made of rough material, the doors are made of rough hardwood plank, three inches thick, with a diamond hole in them 7x9 inches, which is the source of light and air. Beds are on the floor, with nothing to separate them from where they sit except a piece of plank set up edgewise, and indeed the whole construction is a stigma on humanity."

In apartments thus dark, and cold in winter, and filthy at all times, more gloomy than prisons, twenty-six insane individuals are kept. Ten are males and sixteen are females---and eighteen are American born. Two of them have been so confined from 1842 and 1844---and this Institution continues to receive cases! What can be more cruel? And only paupers extend these lunatics the care they receive. There are in all fourteen cells, in which twenty-six lunatics are confined.

Four escaped during the year who were not returned; and who would not escape even to die rather than live such a lingering death? There is no provision made for the medical treatment of the insane and they receive none with reference to a recovery. The sufferings of these unfortunates from whom the air and light of heaven is shut out, would form a dark chapter of human misery could it be written.

Children from this marriage were:

General Notes: Could this be the John Gransbury, bachelor of Maidstone Parish who married Harriett Dray, Widow of Maidstone Parish on the 20 day of June 1829?; She was listed as a widow, so this could have been a married name?; Bishop Transcripts of the Maidstone Parish All Saints Church, film #FHL 1835448 page 295, Entry No. 883. [I believe it is and have used this marriage until proven wrong]

John married Harriet WEBB, daughter of Henry WEBB, about 1803 of Staplehurst, Kent, England. Harriet was born about 1785 of Chart Next Sutton, Kent, England.

General Notes: NAME: from a marriage entry in parish of Chart Sutton. This states that Harriet Gransbury, of full age, Widow, residence Chart Sutton Married Richard Walter 17 Feb 1847, Entry # 29. Registration District Hollingbourn. Married in the presence of John, Richard, Walter, and Wm. Cochrane by W. A. Naughan, Vicar. Her father's name is given with surname Webb. I found an entry in the Maidstone Parish Register (Bishop Transcripts of the Maidstone Parish All Saints Church, film #FHL 1835448 page 295, Entry No. 883) that states Harriet (nee Webb) Gransbury over 21 Widow md. Richard Walter 17 Feb 1847.

QUESTION: Is Harriet the Harriett Dray, Widow of Maidstone parish who married John Gransbury, Bachelor of Maidstone Parish by Banns 20 June 1829 by James Reeve, Minister. In the presence of David Grigsby and Richard Martin. If she was a widow her maiden name could have been Webb.

Children from this marriage were:

General Notes: NAME: He was christened as Stephen Sisley a baseborn child of Ann Sisley. In the Staplehurst Parish Chest Records at the end of the film are the Bastardy Bonds where Ann Sisley lists Stephen Gransbury as the father of Stephen. Stephen and Ann Sisley posted Marriage Banns before his birth - but didn't marry for some reason until later - before their second child was born. Ann listed Stephen as being in another parish when she listed him as the father.

ages are off a year or two). HIS FATHER CAME TEN YEARS LATER. SEE HIS NOTES.

[Where does the name Mary come from?; She is listed in the later census records as Ann in 1855 and Nancy in 1850. Now I have Ann Crowhurst as the maiden name of his wife. Is the name Mary an error by the clerk recording the names on the ships manifest? or was her name Mary Ann and Nancy used as a nickname for Ann, which was common in England at the time. I am beginning to lean toward her name being Mary Ann as I can't find information on Ann Crowhurst in the right place and time period.]

Stephen Gransbury [indexed Greensbury or Greensburg] 63, M Farmer, $30 Personal Estate, b. England

Nancy Gransbury 67 F, Housework, b. New York [Nancy is hard to read but see entry for their marriage.]

NOTE: WHY is he in Cattaraugus County, clear across NY - West of Delaware County? Was he heading West with one of his sons and for some reason stopped in Perrysburg and stayed there after meeting Mrs. Nancy Parks?

In the Staplehurst Parish Chest Records Overseers accounts and Settlement papers I find records showing that in 1827 Mr. Step. Gransbury had a half Boot done for 13 s. 6 p., then in March and April 1829 under the names of Stepn., Stephen, and S. Gransbury he is listed as working and receiving goods. Stephen and Ann came to the United States in 1829 arriving in August. This appears to be this family earning money and getting help before leaving England. No specific identifying information for which Stephen these records apply to. (Then there were no more entries for a Stephen until 1834. The Stephen receiving help in 1834 would be his father, probably preparing to come to America, as they came in 1839.)

Stephen married Ann CROWHURST on 9 Jun 1816 in , , England.⁵ Ann was born cal 1797 of Staplehurst, Kent, England and died on 10 Aug 1855 in Delhi, Delaware, New York, about age 58⁵

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

Marriage Notes: Pedigree Resource File, CD 15 by Kathleen McCarroll for the complete marriage date. Note that this was after the birth of their first child.

General Notes: DEATH: One record from Kathleen McCarroll gave Ann death as 10 Aug 1855/57. In the 1855 census Stephen is with his son and listed as widowed, so I am using 1855 for her death date.

NAME: Her name was given as Ann in the Staplehurst Parish Register when her children were baptized. On the immigration record it was listed as Mary; 1850 it was listed as Nancy; 1855 it was listed as Ann. Hence the confusion on her name.

CENSUS 1850: Tompkins, Delaware, New York gives age as 58. Also says she was born in England and gives her name as Nancy, so Ann is possibly a nickname. The children on this census fit with the known family on the records we received from cousins of Grandpa's (Charles Wesley Gransbury of Burley, Idaho) in New York.

CENSUS: 1855 Tompkins, Delaware, New York. Name given as Ann. Age 58 born England lived in this town 8 years. See Stephens notes for full census information.

NAME: In "Genealogical Research in England and Wales" by Smith and Gardner in the chapter on names they say that Nancy is often used for Ann, so that helps understand those two names, but I still don't know where Mary comes in that is on the ship roster of the immigration record, unless her name was Mary Ann and she used her first name on the register, but was called Ann or Nancy. They also say that in the 1841 census the enumerators were instructed to write down only one given name. If a person had two names they would possibly give the name they were called by and we would have no idea if it was a first or second name. They were in America before 1841, and our 1840 census didn't give wives names, so that doesn't help any.

General Notes: MARRIAGE: Bishops Transcripts, Staplehurst Parish, All Saints Church 1813-1905 Item 1 No. 99 SLC Family History Center, SLC, Utah, film #1835741 Thomas Barnes of this parish and Elizabeth Gransbury of this parish were married in this church by Banns this 13 day of May 1827 by me T. W. Hornbuckle, Rector. This marriage was solemnized between Us: Thomas Barns (sp) his X mark Elizabeth Gransbury her X mark. In the presence of Stephen Gransbury (signature ?;) and Ann Gransbury her X mark. The words (with consent of) were crossed out.

NOTE: [This is my source for connecting Elizabeth to Stephen and Ann as their daughter. She apparently died before Thomas immigrated to America. See notes below for 1850 census information]

DEATH: FHL 1835449 Bishops Transcripts of All Saints Church, Maidstone, Parish, Kent, England, 1832-1844. Entry #782. Lists her age as 56, but in reality she should have been about 36. Ages are often wrong, but the copy shows it listed as 56. [This isn't totally proven, but only entry I find for the death of Elizabeth [Gransbury] Barnes]

NOTES: In the 1850 census in Delaware County, New York we find Stephen Gransbury, a widower with Thomas Barnes and Rebecca Barnes and Thomas Barnes, Jr. I find Thomas Barnes and Stephen Gransbury filing for Naturalization on the same date and place. I added her as a child of Stephen and Ann from the above marriage record. Thomas had a daughter named Elizabeth, who married Henry England. This is proven by Thomas Barnes will and papers filed in connection with it. A copy in possession of Eunice Harmon.

An Elizabeth Gransbury aged 6 emigrated to the United States with Stephen and Ann. I believe her to be a daughter of Thomas Barnes and Elizabeth Gransbury, who after her mother's death emigrated with her grandparents, Stephen, Sr. and Ann and was listed on the ships register by the same surname as her grandparents and the rest of the family. Names on ship registers are often listed incorrectly.

When I read the Maidstone Parish Register and found her son's birth her name was listed as Ann Elizabeth. This could be very possible as both her grandmothers were named Ann.

Elizabeth married Thomas BARNES, Sr. on 13 May 1827 in Staplehurst, Kent, England² Thomas was born cal 6 May 1800 of Staplehurst, Kent, England, died on 15 May 1868 in Stamford, Delaware, New York, about age 68, and was buried in Stamford, Delaware, New York.

General Notes: BIRTH: Calculated from Death Records.

IMMIGRATION: Thomas Immigrated from Liverpool to America in 1840 according to his naturalization record. I couldn't find his immigration record, but many pages of 1840 were so faint that they couldn't be read with certainty.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

NATURALIZATION: 25 Sep 1846 Thomas Barnes, born in England embarked from Liverpool for the United States in the year 1840 and is about 35 years of age and now resided in Stamford, Delaware, New York filed his intention to become a Citizen of the United States. SECTION IX.-THE CIVIL WAR. - 1861-1865

9. The most complete organization which Delaware county furnished to the war was the 144th regiment N. Y. Volunteers. It was raised in the summer of 1862 when President Lincoln called for 300,000 more men to put down the rebellion. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Meetings were held everywhere throughout the county. Within twenty days from the time of the first movements the regiment was ready to be mustered in. It was moved at once to Washington in order to aid in the defense of the Capitol, and at the same time to be trained and disciplined into a hardy body of soldiers. In April 1860, they were moved to Suffolk in Virginia which General Longstreet was then besieging. From there they were moved to West Point in Virginia. In July 1863, they were ordered to the Army of the Potomac; but in August they were sent to South Carolina where they were present at the bombardment of Charleston and Sumter. In February 1864, they were sent to Florida. Then later in the year they were employed in cooperating with

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

General Sherman in his great march through the centre of the Confederacy. They were not engaged in as much or as severe fighting as some of the other bodies of troops from Delaware county. But they were present at a most important period of the war, and when it came to an end in the spring of 1865, they were still an active and intrepid body of troops. They were mustered out of the service in July 1865. The flags which had been given to them at Delhi when they left, they brought back with them when they returned. They were torn and shot through, and stained with blood; and worn with wind and rain. But they were precious relics of their campaigns and now are treasured with other mementos of the war in the capitol at Albany.

It was ordered to Charleston harbor where during the fall and winter of 1863 the regiment was engaged at Folly and Morris islands and participated in the siege of Fort Wagner and the bombardment of Fort Sumter and Charleston. In Feb 1864, it was engaged at Seabrook and John's islands. SC. Then it went to Florida where it engaged in raiding expeditions and was in the action at Camp Finnegan. In June it returned to Hilton Head and fought at John's Island in July and participated in movements with Sherman, fighting at Honey Hill and Deveaux Neck. In Feb 1865 it was severely engaged at James island. In the fall of 1864 the ranks were reduced to between 300 to 400 men through battle and disease, and new one year recruits brought it back up to normal strength. It was mustered out at Hilton Head, SC 25 Jun 1865. SOURCE: New York: Report of the Adjutant-General. (New York Roster) Published in 1894-1906.

NOTE: Their son, Stephen Henry, enlisted in the 101st New York Regiment in Oct. 1861 for three years and re-enlisted in Dec. 1863 in the 40th New York Regiment. He was a private. Their son William P. died in the Civil War. The next son, Edward S. enlisted in the 144th New York Regiment on Sep. 1862 for 3 years. He was a private. The next son, John Wesley enlisted in the 95th New York Regiment in Sept 1864 as a private. He served 9 months and was discharged without wounds. I have a copy of his discharge record. They are all listed in the 1865 census. I cannot begin to imagine how Naomi must have felt to have her husband and four of her older sons in the war at the same time. She had at least one brother Russell Cole in the service and he died in Andersonville Prison after being captured. ALSO John's sister, Philadelphia, had her husband, John Fleming a Private in the 2nd U. S. Dragoons, Co. K. He died on August 27, 1861 of disease contracted in the service. He was buried in the Military Asylum Cemetery in Washington, D. C. John's brother George was also in the service in the 1st New York Engineers. Another brother of John, Oliver, was in Co. A 121st Regiment and killed 3 May 1863 in Marye's Heights, VA.

The third attempt to invade the solitude of Delaware county was made by the New York and Oswego Midland railroad, now called the New York, Ontario & Western. This road was projected in 1865 and articles of incorporation filed in 1866. It was designed to reach from New York city to Oswego, by running through a section of the State not before traversed by railroad and thus to open up some hopeful regions which heretofore had been shut in by mountains. Much special legislation was needed to carry out this design. It plainly could not rely for success upon the subscription of stockholders who would risk their money in the enterprise. Henry R. Low, Senator from Sullivan county, and Speaker Dewitt C. Littlejohn from Oswego, were in the State legislature when the plans for building this road were under discussion; and by the powerful influence of these two men the needed legislation was procured. The most important of the laws passed was one enabling any town of a county through which the road was to pass to issue bonds for its construction, the sum to be raised not to exceed thirty percent of the taxable property. Much discussion occurred in regard to the location of the line. Some of the most earnest friends of the road insisted upon the main line being located through the village of Delhi. It was not an easy thing, however, to lay a line through the mountains of Delaware. Engineering questions are involved in it, and patriotic impulses must remain in the background. It was finally settled to make the main line cross the Delaware valley at Walton, and build a branch line to Delhi. On 6 Sep 1871 John sold 3 33/100 acres to the Railroad for $343.30.

Mr. Littlejohn, who had been made president of the company, traversed the route from end to end, appealing to the several communities for their aid. As he was a man of endless resources and of most earnest and plausible address, he met with uniform success in inducing the towns to bond themselves. In the foreclosure proceedings instituted in 1879 the cost of the road is stated at $26,333,000; of which sum the amount received from bonding the towns was nearly $7,000,000, the towns in Delaware county furnishing $660,800. For the town bonds thus issued stock was returned by the company. This stock was wiped out by the foreclosure proceedings above referred to; and thus the towns were put in the position, of making an absolute gift to this road. Who will say, however, that the benefits derived from it have not more than balanced the large outlay? Besides the amounts received from the towns, the company relied for building the road upon the stock subscribed for and on the amounts realized from mortgages. It is only necessary to add, however, that the road has never proved a financial success. In 1873 it defaulted on its interest and went into the hands of receivers. In 1880 it was sold to a new company who have reorganized it on a basis which enables it to pay its way. It is now called the New York, Ontario and Western railroad.

John married Naomi Ann PUFFER, daughter of Benjamin PUFFER, Jr. and Sabra Redfield BEERS, about 1839/1840 in , Delaware, New York. DEATH'S HARVEST IN '99 VITAL STATISTICS OF WALTON FOR THE YEAR 1899

Eighty_two Deaths__One Hundred and One Births__Forty_Two Marriages During the year 1899 there have been one hundred and one births, forty_two marriages and eighty_two deaths in the town of Walton as recorded with the town clerk. The number of births will exceed this owing to the fact that physicians are slow in recording them. ...Last winter was especially hard on the aged and infirm, and nearly one_half of the deaths occurred during the first four months of the year. Of the deaths sixteen or nearly one_fourth were from pneumonia, but very few from consumption and only two from fever. Pneumonia and bronchitis together claimed nearly one_half the victims.July 21 Naomi Gransbury, 77 (1899)

INFORMATION about Stratford and Salisbury and their counties.

.....Salisbury side of the creek, it has always been the village of Stratford. As you get to know her town by her writing and introduction below, you will come to realize that Salisbury and Stratford are forever intertwined.

First, Stratford as a village, is divided into two parts: Town of Stratford, Fulton County and Town of Salisbury, Herkimer County. The East Canada Creek, weaving back and forth, creates the division. There are two churches on the Salisbury side, there were several stores on both sides, only one now remaining on the Stratford side of the town. There is a post office on the Stratford side that serves all of the area. The cemetery that was and is most used is located in Salisbury but goes by the name of the Stratford Cemetery Association. There is a local volunteer fire department located outside the village on the Pleasant Lake Road that serves the entire area.

SECTION IX.-THE CIVIL WAR. - 1861-1865

9. The most complete organization which Delaware county furnished to the war was the 144th regiment N. Y. Volunteers. It was raised in the summer of 1862 when President Lincoln called for 300,000 more men to put down the rebellion. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Meetings were held everywhere throughout the county. Within twenty days from the time of the first movements the regiment was ready to be mustered in. It was moved at once to Washington in order to aid in the defense of the Capitol, and at the same time to be trained and disciplined into a hardy body of soldiers. In April 1860, they were moved to Suffolk in Virginia which General Longstreet was then besieging. From there they were moved to West Point in Virginia. In July 1863, they were ordered to the Army of the Potomac; but in August they were sent to South Carolina where they were present at the bombardment of Charleston and Sumter. In February 1864, they were sent to Florida. Then later in the year they were employed in cooperating with General Sherman in his great march through the centre of the Confederacy. They were not engaged in as much or as severe fighting as some of the other bodies of troops from Delaware county. But they were present at a most important period of the war, and when it came to an end in the spring of 1865, they were still an active and intrepid body of troops. They were mustered out of the service in July 1865.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

The flags which had been given to them at Delhi when they left, they brought back with them when they returned. They were torn and shot through, and stained with blood; and worn with wind and rain. But they were precious relics of their campaigns and now are treasured with other mementos of the war in the capitol at Albany.

Aunt Alice (dec'd) in her life story says Henry and wife, Julia (called Aunt Jewel) were in Kansas when her parents, John Wesley and Lura Elmina, went to Kansas, about 1877/1878. On the Social Security Death Index are listed: Ethel [1902], Eva [1922], Henry [1888], James [1922], Lillie [1904], birth years. Henry could very well be a grandson of Henry and Julia

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

Henry married Julia Ann BOLTON, daughter of James S. BOLTON and Lucinda WILLIAMS, on 26 Jun 1851 in , Delaware, New York.⁵ Julia was born on 20 Jan 1832 in Trumansburg, Tompkins, New York⁵ and died in 1910 in , , Kansas, at age 78. Another name for Julia was Surname Also Given As Pearlack.

General Notes: Her name is listed on some records as Julia A. PEARLACK Bolton. Was she married before?//

Julia Ann Bolton

Children from this marriage were:

- 81 F i. Adeline GRANSBURY was born about 1851/1852 in Tompkins, Delaware, New York.

General Notes: In 1865 Julia is listed as the mother of 8 children. Did Adeline die young?; I added her back to this family on this presumption. She probably died before 1855 as she isn't listed in the census with her parents. Or is Adeline and Eveline the same child?

Adeline is not listed in the Young family file, but Alester A is listed. I didn't have Alester in my file. One of them must be incorrect as in 1865 Census Julia is listed as the mother of 8.

General Notes: MARRIAGE: Married name given in her mother's will. James Williams via e-mail (jamesw@dreamscape.com) sent me information from the Stewart's family bible. Laury or Lary A. Gransbury married William Henderson on March 3, 1864. (In the early handwriting an 'S' is often misread for an 'L', so I am sure this name should be Saury or Sary (Sarah)) It names 5 children and their birth dates. All other information on her parents fits mine. (It stands to reason that her name would be Sarah as that was the name of their last daughter. She also named a daughter after her sister, Mary, and a son after her 2nd great grandfather, George Gransbury. George is a name carried down through the family.)

If he had survived until the 29th of next month he would have reached his 80th birthday. The funeral was appointed for Friday, at 2 o'clock at the house. The service was conducted by Rev. A. M. General Notes: FHL film 1835448 Maidstone, Kent, England Bishop Transcripts All Saints Church. Page 217 entry # 1734. This is Chr 26 Jan 1831 and gives as his parents Mark Horatio Nelson Barnes and Ann Elizabeth abode, Maidstone, Occupation of father Sail Maker. This is the correct date, but brings up a question of why the fathers name is listed this way, as the next 2 daughters give Thomas Barnes as the father. In the 1850 census he is listed as Thomas Barnes, Jr. [NOTE: It is always possible that the Parish Register has the wrong father listed here. NOTE that this is a Bishops Transcript and they often contain errors. See his death certificate information listed below.]

Post, Captain Dan Doyle, Colonel Charles Cox, late of Leadville, George Donn, late of New Mexico, and Mem'rs, George Tull, Mose Hawks, James Anderson and the genial THOMAS BARNES. They had a jolly good time and their recital of their numerous adventures, etc, since their advent into Colorado, were very amusing.

[This makes me think of a man of larger girth with his vest and pocket watch chain fastened across it leaning back and telling tales of his adventures and enjoying a good laugh both at himself and his companions.]

Thomas married Amanda Frances COMSTOCK on 26 Dec 1870 in Stamford, Delaware, New York. OBITUARY: Georgetown, Colorado March 10, 1917: Mrs. Amanda Barnes, relict of Thomas Barnes, died on the night of March 2 in the 75th year of her age.

Mrs. Barnes was a pioneer resident of Colorado. Born in the South not far from Washington, D. C., she was married to Mr. Comstock, an army officer. Immediately after their marriage they took up their residence on the Caw Indian reservation in Kansas, where Mr. Comstock was Reservation Agent. He died in the early years of the Civil War, after which his widow came to Colorado, making her home at Central City, where she became acquainted with Thomas Barnes. They were married in Stamford, N. Y., December 1870, and lived at Central City until 1876, when they came to Georgetown. Mr. Barnes died here 17 years ago.

Mrs. Barnes is survived by one immediate relative, a sister, Mrs. McArty of Chicago, and a number of half-brothers and sisters.

Services were held at the late home Sunday evening by Rev. Harrison of the Episcopal church. Monday the remains were taken to Denver and services held at St. Barnaby's church. Rev. Chas. H. Marshall officiating. Interment was at Fairmount cemetery.

Thomas next married Mrs. Thomas BARNES about 1859 of Stamford, Delaware, New York. Mrs. was born about 1842 of Stamford, Delaware, New York.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 101 M i. Thomas A. BARNES, III was born in 1861 in Stamford, Delaware, New York and died on 23 Mar 1940 in Stamford, Delaware, New York, at age 79.

Thomas married Cora E. DYKEMAN (b. Cal 1869, d. 19 Jun 1932) on 10 Jul 1885 in Stamford, Delaware, New York.

30. Elizabeth BARNES (*Elizabeth GRANSBURY*⁴, *Stephen Sr.*³, *George Jr.*², *George Sr.*¹) was christened on 13 Jan 1833 in Maidstone, Kent, England.

General Notes: BIRTH: FHL 1835449 Maidstone All Saints Parish, Kent, England Bishops Transcripts of Parish Register 1832-1844. Name spelled Barns. Entry # 406.

THOUGHTS: She is listed in her father's will as Elizabeth England in 1868. I believe she immigrated with her grandparents, Stephen Gransbury and Ann when they immigrated. There was listed with them an Elizabeth whose age fits hers. I probably found her mothers death in the above Maidstone Parish Register. It gave her age as 56, when it should really be about 36. I also found another possible sister in the same register. If her mother, Elizabeth Gransbury Barnes had died this would make sense, as she isn't listed with her father in the 1840, 1850 or 1855 census records. But she is listed in his probate records as his daughter and her children are also listed. I believe her mother died in England and Thomas married Rebecca Tamsit before he came to America. I haven't been able to find his immigration records yet, so this is just my assumption.

Elizabeth married Henry J. ENGLAND, son of Henry ENGLAND, I and Mary KNAPP, on 1 Jan 1852 in Delhi, Delaware, New York.¹⁸ Henry was born in 1832/1833 in , Dutchess, New York and died on 16 Jan 1886 in , Delaware, New York, at age 54.

May 1861 - A jail break occurred in May when Benjamin Gransbury, jailed for robbery, escaped by blowing the lock off his cell door with gunpowder. The sheriff offered $50 for his capture.

On Ancestry.com Database: Leadville, Colorado City Directories 1882-1990 I find Benjamin B. Gransbury as an engineer. location 2: r431 e 10th in Leadville, Colorado in year 1882. Leadville is 70 miles SW of Denver and is the capital of Lake County in Central Colorado. I have no death date for him so should check out the census records here.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This informaton takes place after William P. was woulded and died. The Ancestry.com record also gives a William H. Gransbury enlisted 3 June 1863 as a Private in the Union army. No age or place of enlistment given. Transferred in Company I, 40th Infantry Regiment New York on 3 Jun 1863 [after William P. was wounded] Promoted to Full Corporal on 1 Jun 1864 and Killed on 18 Jun 1864 in Petersburg, VA. Others not placed are Stephen S. & George A.]

William married (name unknown).

35. Edward S. GRANSBURY (*John*⁵, *Stephen Jr.*⁴, *Stephen Sr.*³, *George Jr.*², *George Sr.*¹) was born cal 1845 in Walton Or Tompkins, Delaware, New York;²² died on 31 Jul 1913 in Bath, Steuben, New York, about age 68, and was buried on 31 Jul 1913 in Bath, Steuben, New York.

General Notes: NAME: He is Edward in all the Census except 1850 when his name is listed as Edwin. In his Mother's obituary in 1899 he is named Edward and his residence was unknown. Does the S. in his name stand for Stephen after his grandfather?;

NOTE: I have added his wife and son, and descendants from records that I have found on the internet, and now verified from his son, John "Benjamin" s marriage record. I have tried to outline each of the used searches in the notes of the appropriate person. If ANYONE can add to this family I would appreciate hearing from you. emh@cableone.net

Information from Beth Ibara: 20 FEB 2004: Initial data found at http://www.interment.net/data/us/ny/steuben/bathnat/bath_gigu.htm. Called Bath VA Center/Cemetary at 607-664-4000, The Bloomerville Historical Society at 607-776-9930 and Doorman Library 607-776-4631. Very little data available. I did think it was interesting that Edward was the only Gransbury buried at Bath. the S was not spelled out anywhere! His military records said he was Protestant. I think he possibily had three kids. Ellen, who died young in Seattle, Frank in Butte, Montana and John was in Detroit at 26 and LA when he died at age 41 years. The common thread is these are the people who spelled their name Gransberry. I have his cause of death on a yellow paper mail from Doorman Library I think, but can't put my finer on it at 12:14 M.

Frank is ruled out as he is a son of William and Louise Clark Gransbury living in Montana and his legal name is Francis Henry. As for Ellen in Seattle, I have no idea and her SS death record gives no information. Beth gives Gransberry, Ellen born 1898, died 31 Dec 1916, South Seattle, Williams Lot 4, Blk 177. with a source "King County Property Services"

Edward married Elizabeth PAYNE about 1880.

General Notes: OBITUARY: It doesn't give a date.

At 35 on Wednesday morning George L. VanDusen died at the home of his parents on Sperry street of pleura pneumonis, after a brief illness. In fact his death came as a great surprise, as he was critically ill but a short time.

The deceased had been employed in New York for nearly a year. He came home a week ago last Saturday, ill from a severe cold and not able to work. Early last week, feeling better, he went to the home of Silas Smith to assist in some special farm work, believing his condition would be benefited by the open air. On Wednesday last he became ill and was brought home and went to bed and Dr. Clark was summoned. His condition rapidly grew worse after Monday.

Mr. VanDusen was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanDusen and would have been twenty-five years old Sunday. He was born in Unadilla and his entire life was spent here until going to New York. He was a bright, courteous, pleasant young man and his death is aa great grief to his family and friends. Besides his parents he is survived by three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Mckay, Mrs Crandall, Gladys, and Joseph of Unadilla and William H., of Johnstown, Pa.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house, conducted by the Rev. Dr. R. N. Parke, burial in Evergreen Hill Cemetery.

[NOTE: He died in 1903. From family records and records from the book: 'At Rest in Unadilla, Otsego County, New York, page 167.]

Is this 1880 census Henry?; He and Ida Naomi didn't marry until after 1880 as she is in the census as Ida Gransbury. Also Harriett L. is probably a second wife. Note his first two sons ages, then the last three children. The age fits with his age at death given above.

DEATH: Mrs. Herman L. Gransbury

Martha Van Deusen, wife of Herman Gransbury, died at her home near Wells Bridge on Monday morning, November 5th, 1917, at eleven-thirty o'clock, following a very sudden attack of acute Bright's disease at the age of sixty-five years, seven months and twenty-six days.

Mrs. Gransbury was born in Northeast, Dutchess county on March 18th, 1852, being one of eight children --- three boys and five girls, born to Charles and Nancy Van Deusen, who removed to Unadilla in 1856.

The deceased lived in or near Unadilla until the time of her marriage December 26th, 1888. The latter part of their married life was spent on various farms about East Sidney. Although having been a great sufferer for about ten years of arthritis the final illness came as a great shock to the family. She was a good Christian, a loving wife and devoted mother, and very patient in all her suffering.

Besides her husband she is survived by an adopted daughter, Pauline, two brothers, Matthew P. of Colliers, and Jesse W. Van Deusen of Norwich; and three sisters, Mrs. Sylvester Phillips of Unadilla, Mrs. Lola Graves of Sidney, and Mrs. Minnie Pooler of Miami, Florida.

The funeral services were held at the late home Thursday, November 8th, at one-thirty o'clock, conducted by Fred Joyce, Rev. W. C. Dodge officiating. Burial was given at Evergreen Hill Cemetery.

Could they have had a son Charles born abt 1882. I found a Charles Gransberry in the 1920 census, dwelling 193, family 219; Minnesota, Dakota County, South St. Paul, ED 30; date 5 Feb 1920.

This makes him fit as the second child of this family.

Dean Gransbury via email- Edward was my great, great grandfather. Edward and Julia had a son and two daughters (Fay-son], Bess, and I think Mabel). It is thought that Fay changed the name to Gransbery. All the descendants of Edward except, Nellie L (1880 census) are from Dean.

March 2, 1899 From all indications the small pox seems to be under control and no further anxiety need be entertained. The lapse of time has been sufficient for others to have taken the disease if there is to be any new cases. All persons supposedly to have been exposed have been released and the home of Bob Gransberry alone remains under quarantine. Of those in the same house it is quite improbable that any of them will fall victims to the disease. Mr. Gransberry and those shut in with him will not be permitted to be released until all danger is past.

April 1899 The Gransberry people have been released from quarantine and once more breathe the air of freedom and roam about at will.

June 1899 Robt. Gransberry opened a feed and exchange store east of the livery barn in the Spoo building. This makes two feed stores for Exira.

TO DO: CENSUS: 1880 a William Gransbury age 7 [born 1873] is listed with Edgar Reed and Hannah Reed listed as BroL. FHL Film 1254823 page 415A. This is probably William/Willis.

1908: Database: Otsego County, New York Directory, Gransbury, Wm. E. Occupation: Emp. D&H; address, 35 Gilbert, Oneonta, Otsego, New York Directory 1908. This is probably Willis Emmons as I find him listed as William in the Census in 1900. He is also listed in the Herkimer and Otsego Counties, New York Directories in 1917 in the same place emp. D&H and name Wm.

Willis married A. Abbie COLE, daughter of William N. COLE and Delana Sophia THORP, on 18 Apr 1894 in Tompkins, Delaware, New York. A. was born on 17 Mar 1876 in , , New York³¹ and died on 19 Nov 1949 in Oneonta, Otsego, New York, at age 73.

General Notes: Have more of her mother's ancestry from John Noxel, but didn't enter it on the computer as it isn't my direct line. See John's file. Also have her birth 17 Mar 1874 and Death 11 Nov 1961 in Oneonta, New York from an internet file. She was 3 in the 1880 census, so her birth would be in 1876/1877.

On the jchefferman.tripod.com/i277.htm I have her dates listed (17 Mar 1874 - 11 Nov 1961) which is incorrect. Her marriage date to Willis Emmons Gransbury is correct according to my dates. This list gives 8 children and dates.

His first name was changed from Toussaint to Charles when he came to this country (because everyone always called him Two-Cents). He was born 4 March 1857 in Blieskastel, Germany and died on 7 September 1929 in Brooklyn, NY. He was married to Belinda Elizabeth Gransbury on 19 February around 1881. They had 11 children. If anyone has any information on either the parents and siblings of Charles Bernhard Dietz and Belinda Elizabeth Gransbury, it would be very much appreciated. My email is bkmcc2000@yahoo.com.

John B. Gransbury - Additional Data

I talked to Evergreen Cemetery, 204 North Evergreen, Los Angeles, CA (323) 268-6714. Jenette still had the 1920 record of

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

John B. Gransbury's burial. They do not print records but were willing to read it to me. In fact, it was here that I learned JB's first name. Their records show he died on June 29th at age 41. He was buried on lot 3510 and there is no headstone. That means he was born around 1879 according to the cemetery records. The death date differs one day from the newspaper that stated June 30th. I asked who paid for the funeral and they only knew Alvarez (sp) and Blue Mortuary, which no longer exists.

The facility was called the Wayne County Poorhouse until 1872, when it was changed to the Wayne County Alms House. In 1886 it became simply the Wayne County House. For generations of metro-area Detroiters, Eloise Hospital stood at the corner of Michigan Ave. and Merriman Road as a chilling reminder of what could happen to you if your life took a bad turn. For years it was viewed as a destination of no return for the insane, the Tubercular, and the just plain poor. It was closed in 1981 and at one time had over 8,000 patients. Prior to the 1940's little distinction was made between rational and mentally ill inmates. In the 1930's Wayne County began feeling the effects of the Depression. Eloise grew rapidly as both the indigent and mentally ill populations multiplied. By 1934 the inmate population averaged more than 8,300, about 50 percent of them mentally ill, and the number of employees had risen to nearly 2,000.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

A 1939 Detroit News article described the daily routine: "The residents rise at 7 a.m. and go to bed at 7:30 p.m. Between times, they sit and stare at the wall, at their feet, at the windows. There is no exercise or organized social movement."

LIFE SKETCH: The following life sketch was given at his funeral: CHARLES WESLEY GRANSBURY was born 4 April 1879 in Sterling, Kansas to John Wesley Gransbury and Lura Elmina Cole. He was the third son and the third of five children to bless the Gransbury home.

The Gransbury family lived on the county line between Rice and Reno Counties in the state of Kansas, where they operated a farm which they had homesteaded in 1878. It was here that young Charles spent his early childhood. Charles attended school in Rice County until he had completed most of the fourth grade. At that time, his father needed his help with the farm work and his formal education gave way to the demands of every day life.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

The family continued in this endeavor until Charles was 18 years of age. About that time, William Harper from Albion, Idaho, a missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints entered their lives. In March of 1897, his Mother and Father joined the Church with his two sisters joining shortly shortly after. At that particular time in history, Kansas was not a pleasant place to live if you were a Mormon, so in fall of 1897, the family moved to Albion, Idaho. The trek consumed nine weeks and four days. During the journey, one of their best horses was struck by a rattlesnake. This caused a delay of some four days while arrangements were made for another horse.

Charles met Jennie Louise Parrott on 4 April 1900. This mortal acquaintance lasted some 65 years. They were married 30 Jan. 1901. This marital union was blessed with six children five sons, Orval Howard, Walter Charles, George Wesley, William Leslie and Charles Marlon, and one daughter, Eunice Naomi. Of these six children four of the sons preceded Charles in death. They had one son die when he was born early. He was never named. Charles Marlon being the surviving son.

His wife, Jennie Louise Parrott, also preceded him in death, passing away in May of 1965. However, this good sister lived to see her fondest dream fulfilled as Charles joined the Church on 30 June 1962 and then he took his bride of 61 years to the Temple in Idaho Falls to have their marriage sealed for Time and Eternity on the 12th of Feb. 1964.

On 22 March 1968 at age 87, Charles married Mary (Llibbie) Ransom (Sant) at the home of her daughter in Burley, Idaho. These two shared the remaining years of his life.

Charles Wesley Gransbury lived a long and eventful life. He was a farmer, rancher, livery man, and frieght hauler. He was a resident of this area for nearly 74 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary, two sisters, a son, Charles Marlon and a daughter, Eunice Naomi Williams. 24 Grandchildren, 85 Great Grandchildren and 11 Great Great Grandchildren.

The original cards in the National Archives near Atlanta, Georgia can be consulted for more information.

Charles married Jane Louise PARROTT, daughter of Edward PARROTT and Christina Or Christianna STEVENS, on 30 Jan 1901 in Albion, Cassia, Idaho.^{30, 37, 38} Jane was born on 19 Feb 1883 in Pleasant View, Weber, Utah⁴⁴, died on 16 May 1965 in Burley, Cassia, Idaho, at age 82⁶, and was buried on 19 May 1965 in Paul, Minidoka, Idaho!¹⁶ Another name for Jane was Jennie.

FAMILY MEMORIES: Her son, Marlon remembers them living in a small log house in Albion where she took in Washings and Ironings as Charles would drink and play cards until there was no money for the family. They had a mare named Maude which she would drive single on a buggy and deliver one washing and ironing and pick up another one to take home and do on the scrub board. He also said they lived North of Paul on the Hollinger farm that is just West of the Paul Cemetery when Naomi and Walker were married. He tells of a horse named Peanuts his dad won in a card game. It couldn't be rode, but Marlon broke it to ride and rode it to herd cows. Mr. Hollinger traded him a yearling heifer and outlaw mare horse for it. He and his brother Orval broke the mare to ride. He remembers his Mother's half-brother, Walter Scott owning an Orange Grove in California.

LOUISE PARKER, granddaughter, tells of visiting them when Charles said something about dying, and completely out of character Jennie replied, "Hell, Charles, you'll never die. You are too pickled." (Referring to his constant drinking) EUNICE HARMON, granddaughter, remembers her with much fondness. I stayed with them quite often during the summertime. I always felt I was her favorite grand daughter, and am sure all the other grandchildren felt the same way.

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

When I was older I went to take care of her several times when she was down with her legs. She had trouble with blood clots in her later years. I also went and got her and took her into my home several times after she had been in the hospital with them. She was always sewing for her family and for many people in the Burley Idaho area. She would give the small pieces that was left over to me after the birth of my daughter, Cheryl, and I would use them to make dresses for her. After the World War II men would bring nylon parachutes that they had got from the army surplus store to her and she would take them apart and make fancy Western shirts for them. The narrow pieces that were left over were many times made into dresses for her first great granddaughter, Cheryl. She would embroider them with silk rolled roses and take them to town and have them hem-stitched and then crochet on them. We still have several of them as keepsakes. After she was unable to sew for others because of her health she made a silk quilt top for Louise and I for wedding gifts. Later she set together many quilt tops from her scraps and then when they ran out she would have me take my scraps to her. I am still making quilts from the tops that she put together for me. She was a good cook and I loved to go to her place for meals. I don't know how the women of her generation put together the meals that they did, as they didn't have much to cook with. She told about keeping her oldest son, Orval entertained while she went out to the clothes line to hang up clothes, when it was too cold to take him out with her. She would fasten him in his highchair and put some honey on his fingers and give him a feather to play with. This would entertain him as he moved it from one finger to another trying to get it off. As I began trying to put together her family history, she told me how bad she felt about the sons that she lost as babies and the two older ones. She also talked about her baby sister, Ella and her sister, Anna. She told me many times about her half-brothers, Walter and James Scott and her half-sister, Mary, who as a toddler fell into a bucket of hot mop water that her mother had set on the floor and died from the burns she received. (This had to be from her mother telling her about it as Grandma was from her mother's second marriage.) She had many friends in Burley, who many times would take her to town for groceries, but most of the time she very independently walked the many blocks to town and carried her groceries home. Some of them even came and helped clean her house when she was ill. In the last years of her life she developed adult onset diabetes, and in those days it was hard for her to keep it controlled, and many times Mother and I would be called to come as she had a diabetic reaction and was down in bed. She was so happy when she was finally able to attend the temple and I was happy that I was able to go with her. She spent the last years of her life in the Nursing Home in Burley. Before she died she went into a coma, and I spent many hours sitting by her bed just holding her hand and talking to her when no one else was around. I could sometimes feel a very slight response from her hand to mine as I would be telling her how special she was to me. Her nurse would always tell me what she was going to do and have me talk to her about it, as the nurse said that even though she couldn't talk she could hear me talking to her.

EXCERPTS: FROM HER PERSONAL HISTORY as told to Eunice Harmon about 1956 My brothers were Will, John, Wilford, Frank, Sam and Ezra. My sisters were Ella, buried as a baby, and Annie. Besides these I had James, Walter and Mary as half-brothers and sister. We left Utah and moved to Rock Creek, Idaho when I was a young child. I was about nine years old. We moved from Rock Creek to Albion, Idaho when I was around 13. After Father's death July 2, 1896 at Albion, Idaho Mother worked at housework and other jobs to keep the family. Mother's folks were converted to the LDS Church in England and later emigrated to America where they settled in Utah. One of Mother's sisters, Hannah Louise Dorney was the first Relief Society President in Utah.

I learned to sew when I was a small girl, and this has stood me in good stead during the years I was raising a family and later. I always seemed to have sewing to do for someone. After my family was raised I sewed continually until bad health compelled me to give it up. I have also made numerous items of handiwork for my children and grandchildren over the years. (Charles was an alcoholic and didn't give her much money to support the family, so she was forced to sew to make money to support the family. She also traded eggs for groceries, and was proud of the fact that the store always paid her a premium on the butter she churned and sold because it was so sweet and good). I was baptized into the LDS Church when I was young, but my records were lost so I was baptized again on 28 April 1946.

Several times I have felt the power of the priesthood, when illness would necessitate my having the Elders called in. One particular incident was when I had infection in my legs and they were so sore I couldn't walk on them or stand to have them touched. I had had one operation on my leg because of blood clots several years before, and the Doctor said it was impossible to operate again, so I had the Elders come administer and try to give me some relief from the intense pain. They admonished the pain to leave my legs and never again return. I have only had one time since that my legs have been sore, and this was because I overdid myself the summer of 1956 when we built an addition onto our little house. I am bothered by heart trouble and am just able to do my little housework at the present time, so I can't do many of the things I want to do.

Lucille Parrott Gilmore remembers her as invariably being kind and sweet.

OBITUARY: George Gransberry (sic) Passes Away A cloud of sorrow passed over the hearts of the members of the Gransberry family and their friends, Wednesday morning when their son George passed away. George, the third child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gransberry was born in Albion ten years ago, and has always made his home here. Last spring he developed a case of Brights Disease and was compelled to leave school, since that time the little fellow has suffered from the disease which resulted in his death. A few weeks ago he was taken to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Olsen of Burley for medical treatment. Since then he steadily grew worse until early Wednesday morning the kindly hand of God released the little suffering body from pain. Services were held Thursday at 2 o'clock in the L.D.S. church. Bishop Loveland and Mr. Harris of Burley conducted the services. Interment was made in the L.D.S. cemetery [Albion, Idaho]. Deceased leaves to mourn his departure, a father, mother, sister, and two brothers. The sympathy of the community is sincerely extended to this grief stricken family in their loss.

Alice Almira Gransbury Olson

Descendants of George Gransbury, Sr.

BIOGRAPHY: A short history by Alice Gransbury Olson: The Mormon Elders first came to my Fathers door in March 1889 (sic) when I was 10 years old. Father and Mother were quickly converted to the gospel and was baptized in April 1889 (sic). My sister Jennie and myself were baptized in August that same year (She lists their baptism as August 1897 in her record) and Father, Mother, my sister and brother, Charles and myself came west by team and wagon that same fall. Elder William T. Harper and Samuel B. Hazel were the first Elders to come to our home. Elder Harper was from Albion, Idaho and Elder Samuel B. Hazel from Salt Lake City. After our first meeting they were in our home a great deal. A number of other Elders were soon sent to our part of the country and they used our home as a resting place. They would come there to rest and study and Mother would wash and press and mend their clothes. I'll never forget how we enjoyed those times when several of the Elders would meet there. We lived at Albion, Idaho for eleven years. I attended public schools and the Albion State Normal school there. We moved to Burley, Idaho in 1908 where I met my husband and married him in the Salt Lake Temple in 1910. We were blessed with eleven children, nine of whom are living. My husband died in 1934 Dec. 9, and I moved to Salt Lake City Sept 3, 1936 having lost our home through a mortgage.

Alice married Charles Magnus OLSON, son of Ola NELSSON and Hanna MATTSBOTTER, on 6 Jan 1910 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake, Utah. Charles was born on 21 Oct 1867 in Austrup, Or Ostrop, Jutland, Denmark, died on 9 Dec 1934 in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake, Utah, at age 67, and was buried on 13 Dec 1934 in Burley, Cassia, Idaho. The cause of his death was following surgery.

General Notes: OBITUARY lists children with correct spouses, so I have made 2 family group sheets for him. Buried in Pleasant View Cemetery, Burley, Idaho.
Family Group Sheet by wife, Alice Gransbury Olson and a Family Group Sheet by Mrs. Gladys Olson.

~CORRESPONDENCE: Letter from Marty Martinez marbeck77@hotmail.com 10 Mar 2001 Betty's father [Henry Frances] had 9 brothers and one sister. My mother [Betty] had 13 children. Three boys and 10 girls. One boy died when he was 11 and one girl died as an infant, and one died at 18 in a car accident. I have birth certificates and death certificates that will be of help to you. I have Bettys brothers and sisters, their kids and some of the grandkids. I also have some information on Edward Leroy and some of the descendents. Right now they are a bit scrambled. Edward was born in Stuart Neb Sept 24, 1884, so I gather that was where William and Louise moved to. I haven't been able to trace that yet because I hadn't the time. I am planning a trip to Butte/Anaconda to get more information to link a bunch of the names I have together. My grandfather was born in Gunthrie Countie but there is no big town that would constitute a town. There is a township that they were born to. I guess they were born at home with a midwife. On my grandfather's death certificate his last name is spelled GRANSBURY and I have been talking with Dave Gransbery. He says his grandfather did the same. I was having so hard of a time until I got this kind of information, then like you said it has been coming together. I will try to get all the dates [birth, deaths, marriage and divorce] right with each person. In the next couple of days I will be sending bits of information so I don't forget where I started and left off. I am also trying to find part of my other side of the family tree at the same time. So I get confused sometimes what I have or have not sent to each person I am doing on which side of the family. I would be glad to send copies of pictures if you want them. This is going to be fun adding to a side that was very sketchy up to now. Marty.

GRANSBERRY FAMILY BOOK: by David Neal Gransbery of Butte, Montana July 2002 for the Gransbery Family Reunion: Marty has sent some different dates for Betty's family for this book than the ones she sent me last year, so I need to contact her again and see which is correct and what her sources are for her dates. Dear Family,

How is every one doing?; I am doing good. Just sitting here at the computer waiting for my wonderful wife to get home from work. I wanted to write and tell all of you that I Know the Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is the true church and i have such a great respect for our Heavenly Father and the many sacrifices he made for us so we would have the chance to have our agency down on this earth. And if we follow his commandments we will return to his presence.
